

GENDER SENSITIZATION TRAINING PROGRAMME

The School of Women's Studies, Utkal University is going to organise a "Gender Sensitization Training Programme" for the University students on 7th March, 2019 in the P.G.

Council Hall at 10.30A.M. on the eve of the International Women's day. The programme is supported by the Department of Women and Child Development, Government of Odisha.

Broad Areas of Transaction:

"Gender Issues and Protective Laws"

Students from different departments of the university keen on gender issues are requested to express their interest for participation in the programme by registering their details in the School of Women's Studies latest by 1 P.M.on 6th March, 2019. The registration can be done through the following mail.

Email ID :- swsutkal@hotmail.com

Navaneeta Rath

Director,
School of Women's Studies,
Utkal University

Gender equality is a human rights mandate. It is a fundamental aspect of democratic citizenship. The prohibition to discriminate on the grounds of gender is well ingrained in Indian Constitution and the legislations. This training programme is designed for providing information to the students on gender , gender based issues , legislative support system available and the means to access and benefit from such legislations.

RAISE GENDER AWARENESS